

SAFE IN POSTOFFICE AT PATASKALA WRECKED BY BURGLARS SUNDAY

Unable to Gain Entrance to Strong Box of Postmaster Fravel Although Three Charges of Nitroglycerin
Were Used

$2.11 TAKEN WHILE $2,000 REMAINED UNTOUCHED

Bloodhounds Could Not Trace the Yeggs Owing to Cold Scent and Possibility of Escaping on Train—Broke Into Blacksmith Shop to Secure the Tools With Which to Force Entrance Into the Building.

Yeggs made an unsuccessful attack on the postoffice in the New Fravel building at Pataskala early Sunday morning and though they applied three charges of nitroglycerine to the doors they were unable to gain an entrance to the strong box and were compelled to be satisfied with $2.11 in bonds taken from the cash drawer in the store, which is owned by Postmaster Fravel.

According to the statement of residents near the post office, the robbers worked most of Saturday night and Sunday morning. The three explosions heard during the night caused the villagers to fix the time of the operations.

It was 9 o'clock Sunday morning before the discovery of the burglary was made. Post Master Fravel went to the office at that hour and found the wreckage left by the cracksmen.

He made a hurried investigation and then reported the robbery to the village marshal. A telephone message was sent at once to Lancaster for bloodhounds and the dogs arrived early Sunday afternoon. They were put at once on the trail but could not work successfully and this method of apprehending the burglars was abandoned.

At the post office the investigation of the postmaster and officers, revealed the fact that the burglars gained an entrance to the room by using a "jimmy" on a back window. Once inside the building they were able to work undisturbed.

It is believed that they started their operations before midnight and they evidently exploded the charges as trains passed less than a block away. Residents 100 feet away from the scene of the robbery heard nothing of the explosions.

The safe that was attacked was a large one being more after the style of a bank vault. Between the heavy outer doors and the inner doors is an air chamber 18 inches deep. It was this chamber which made the nitro charges ineffective. The robbers found it impossible to concentrate the force of the explosives.

The outer door was all but torn from its place by the repeated attacks but a heavy bolt at the bottom refused to give away and the burglars were foiled in their attempt to get to the valuables within the lighter inside doors. These doors were demolished by the force of the explosions.

The safe contained about $2,000 in money and stamps. The interior was lighted with a gas burner which was undisturbed by the repeated explosions. A small quantity of postage, probably 75 to 100 stamps between the outer and inner doors were unharmed.

While there is no clue as to the identity of the robbers, residents of the village recall having seen two men in one of the stores Saturday evening during the usual holiday rush. However, neither of these men were seen in or about the post office as far as could be learned.

The bloodhounds arrived in Pataskala in an automobile after noon Sunday and were put on the trail at once. Either the cold ride from Lancaster or the fact that the scent obtained in the post office was too "cold" they were unable to follow the yeggs any distance.

A further investigation revealed the fact that the robbers had broken into a blacksmith shop before going to the post office and secured tools with which to enter the building and drill into the safe.

HAVE HOPES OF AN EARLY SETTLEMENT

London, Dec. 23.—The peace conference resumed its sittings at St James' Palace this afternoon. The plenipotentiaries of Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro, Greece and Turkey arrived in the picture gallery of the palace at exactly four o'clock. A further relaxation of international tension was brought about when Austria Hungary informed the European powers that she considers the Balkan difficulties approaching a satisfactory solution. This, she says, is the result of Serbia's action in apologizing to Austria Hungary for the incident connected with the treatment of the Austro-Hungarian consul and also her acceptance of the proposed arrangement to give her port facilities on the Adriatic Sea without territorial possession.

WILL DISCUSS ELIMINATION OF NEGROES

Washington, Dec. 23.—The proposal to eliminate the negro as an American soldier, is a topic slated for consideration when the conference of the ranking officers of the army is held here January 5th. Friends of the negro soldiers are preparing to make a strenuous fight in their behalf, pointing to their splendid record in time of war in Cuba and in the Philippines.

GRAND TRUNK HEADS FACE GOVT. CASE

New York, Dec. 23.—Charles S. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad; E. I. Chamberlain, president of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada; and Albert W. Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk board of directors, were indicted by the federal grand jury here this afternoon, charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law in the alleged monopoly agreement between the two roads.

REBELS IN MEXICO GETTING ACTIVE. SAYS STATE DEPT.

Washington, Dec. 23.—"Revolutionists appear to be growing bolder as the year ends of evading pursuit and capture by the Mexican government," according to a statement authorized today by the state department. Reports indicate the renewal of rebel activity in the states of Morales, Puebla and Mexico, while the situation in Zacatecas and Durango is rapidly going from bad to worse. Great damage has been done to the railroads south of Juarez. The strikers at the Cananea mines are growing bolder as they increase, and they now number 1800.

GOV. WILSON TO CONSULT CONGRESSMEN

In Making His Appointments—No Chance for Place Hunters Who Apply Directly to President Elect.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 23.—After a day of lengthy conferences in Trenton, the most important of which was with William Jennings Bryan, President-elect Woodrow Wilson returned Saturday night to his home here, tired and ready for a rest.

While discussing in a general way the subject of patronage, the president-elect made it evident that those who expect to get political appointments from him had better not try to manifest their ambition to him in person or apply directly to him in any way.

Governor Wilson said that, of course, expected to take advice about patronage and would be guided in a great many appointments by the recommendations of members of congress.

HOLOCAUST IN THEATRE CLAIMS MANY

Menin, Belgium, Dec. 23.—Thirteen are dead and fifty seriously injured as a result of the fire which burned down a theatre at Barrages, near here, last night. None of the audience was burned to death. The medical examination of the bodies today showed that death in every case was due to hemorrhage, caused by pressure in attempting to escape. The panic in the auditorium was frightful.

STEAMER GOES DOWN WITH CREW

Twenty-Two Sailors Lose Their Lives During
Northwest Gale

FIVE ESCAPE IN BOAT

Captain With All His Men Had Reached Shore But Was Driven Back
to Ship.

St. Johns, N. F., Dec. 23.—Twenty-two of the 27 members of the crew of the Furness Line steamer, Florence, from Halifax, N. S., for St. Johns, lost their lives in the wreck of the vessel on the ledge west of St. Shotts during a northwest gale last Friday.

Five exhausted survivors who reached land in a boat brought the news of Trepasser last night. The steamer carried no passengers.

Captain Barr of the steamer and all his men reached shore after the vessel struck but the lofty, inaccessible cliffs of St. Shotts prevented their escape.

The big tide, backed up by the northwest gale, made it impossible to remain there and all hands were obliged to put back to the ship, which was pounding heavily.

Captain Barr felt confident that the wind would go down, but Second Mate J. Hedley volunteered to take four men in one of the ship's boats and seek a more favorable landing place along the coast. In the heavy seas then running the captain was unwilling to risk more lives and gave his consent to the second mate's expedition with reluctance.

With great difficulty Hedley piloted his small boat along the coast until he saw a break in the rugged line of cliffs. Pointing the nose of the boat directly into the surf he avoided the outlying rocks and on the crest of a great breaker ran his craft in without being upser.

Tumbling over hastily to avoid being sucked back by the undertow, the mate and his four men dragged their boat up the beach out of reach of the sea and made their way back along the cliff to where their steamer lay.

The wind and sea in the meantime had increased. The combers broke continually over the decks of the vessel, which was grinding heavily on the jagged rocks. Hedley and his men searched in vain for some path by which the cliff might be scaled or the crew of the Florence helped.

The coast in that vicinity was uninhabited. The few fishermen's huts were deserted for the winter and Hedley had to take refuge for the night in one of these abandoned shacks.

At daybreak Saturday, Hedley found that the wind had been steadily increasing. Hurrying back to the point off which the Florence lay, he could see no sign of the steamer. Considerable of her cargo of lumber was floating along the shore, but no small boats were visible.

They then started for St. Shotts, the nearest inhabited place, several miles distant. Two of them were so exhausted from cold and exposure that they had to be assisted. These two were left at St. Shotts to recuperate, while the others pushed on to the Trepasser whence they sent word of the disaster to this city. They are not expected to arrive here before the middle of the week.

THE ORPHAN'S PLEA.

Out on the streets of a city cold,
As the Christmas morn drew dear,
A tiny orphan, in wistful tones,
Pleaded—But none could hear;
And the crowded street surged on its way,
While the lassie shivered with fear,
For she knew full well her Christmas Day
Would be mingled with many a tear.

"Christmas morn!" sobbed the little maid,
"Twas the day that Jesus came To the little manger at Bethlehem.
And the shepherds sang His name!
O, why doesn't someone think of me
On this day of pleasure sweet,
And let me taste of Christmas love?"
Then she glanced at her ragged feet—
"But no one cares for the poor and worn."
Ah, the cold had battled well,
And the hastening through never cast a glance
Towards the corner where she fell.

A wonderful smile was on her brow
When she found her at break of day.
For the joy of heaven had entered in
When the world had turned her away;
So stay thy steps on this Christmas Eve,
For the poor need a blessing of love,
And the slightest gift is a service true
To the Savior in heart's above.

Newark, O., Dec. 23, 1912.

Besides Mate J. Hedley, the survivors are Seamen W. Wright, O. Malmquist, E. Taylor and T. Smeding.

BOMB' THROWN AT RULER OF INDIA, KILLS

Delhi, India, Dec. 23.—Lord Hardinge, viceroy of India, was wounded and an attendant of his killed by a bomb hurled from a housetop as he was entering the new capitol in state today. The bomb throwers attempted to come within a hair's breadth of being successful.

The viceroy was making his entry in state into Delhi as the last of the ceremonies in connection with the transfer of the capitol from Calcutta to Delhi. Its splendid elephant procession had just left the railway station when the bomb was thrown. The bomb struck the howdah, or basket, of the elephant in which Lord and Lady Hardinge were riding.

The attendant holding a large parasol over the vice-regal pair, was instantly killed as the bomb exploded. Lord Hardinge was slightly wounded in the shoulder.

Three splinters of the powerful bomb that killed the attendant penetrated back and shoulders of the viceroy and he was also wounded in the neck by the screws with which the bomb was filled and which passed through his helmet. The doctors who removed the metal splinters from the wound declared it marvelous that the viceroy escaped fatal injuries.

Lady Hardinge immediately after the explosion asked her husband if he was hurt. He replied: "I am all right. Go on." Lady Hardinge then said: "We cannot. There is a dead man behind." The elephant on which they were riding halted and the viceroy attempted to stand up, but reeled and fainted and the officials who gathered around had great difficulty in removing him from the elephant's back. The viceroy will soon be able to leave the hospital for the vice-regal lodge. The bomb thrower has not yet been caught. A reward of 10,000 rupees, approximately $300, has been offered for his arrest.

Brown, infirmity director, indicted by the grand jury which investigated the Clermont county public affairs, pleaded guilty in court today to six counts in the indictment returned against him. ## REV. J. M. THOMAS ACCEPTS CALL TO CHICAGO CHURCH

Rev. J. Morrison Thomas, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, will leave his Newark charge to accept a call that will take him to Chicago. This was the announcement that Rev. Thomas made to the congregation Sunday morning at the close of his sermon. Rev. Thomas will take up the active work in the Ravenswood Congregational church Jan. 19. He will preach two more sermons in his Newark church, on Jan. 5 and 12.

Rev. Thomas, while he appreciates the efforts made by the local church to retain him, feels that the opportunities offered by the larger field are such that he cannot afford to disregard the call.

HOLLER IS GIVEN A SUSPENDED SENTENCE IN OHIO PENITENTIARY

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter Before Judge Nicholas of Coshocton—Holler Must Abstain From the Use of Intoxicants and the Sale of Same.

The Action of Judge Nicholas Makes a Final Ending in Our Courts of the Consequences of the Unfortunate Lynching Tragedy.

S. A. (Dick) Holler withdrew his plea of not guilty to the charge of first degree murder brought against him in connection with the riot of July 8, 1910, and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of manslaughter in common pleas court Monday morning before Judge S. H. Nicholas of Coshocton. The court passed a that the best thing for the community and its citizens will be to blot from memory all recollection of the trouble that led to the trial. He said that Newark and her citizens have suffered shame for an offense that, under similar circumstances, might easily have been the lot of any city in any county of Ohio.

In passing sentence on Holler the court told him that he alone was responsible for his future lot and that upon him would depend the execution or stay of the sentence.

"You have in your possession the key that will admit you to the penitentiary. In the hands of other men is the key that will release you in case you are committed," said the court.

The sentence as passed by Judge Nicholas was that Holler be confined in the Ohio penitentiary for a term of 10 years and that he pay the costs of prosecution. The sentence is suspended during such time as the defendant obeys the laws of Ohio, abstains from the use of or traffic in intoxicating liquors, and provides a home for his children.

sentence of 10 years' confinement in the Ohio penitentiary and suspended the sentence during such time as Holler cares for his six motherless children and abstains from the use of intoxicating liquors or in the sale of intoxicants.

It was 10 o'clock before the court and the attorneys were ready to proceed with the trial of the case. When Judge Nicholas ascended the bench the defendant, with his attorneys J. B. Fitzgibbon of Newark, and Frank Owen of Mt. Vernon, took their seats inside the rail.

In changing the plea of Holler, Mr. Fitzgibbon reviewed the points of the case and drew the attention of the court to the fact that while Holler had fled following an intimation that he was to be arrested, he was not to Chicago because of the fact that he sought to make a home for his six small children, who had been deserted by their mother. In entering a plea of guilty to the charge of manslaughter for his client Mr. Fitzgibbon said that the defendant would throw himself on the mercy of the court. In behalf of Holler Mr. Fitzgibbon averred that justice would be best subserved if the mantle of charity be thrown about him and the sentence be suspended.

Prosecutor Phil B. Smythe, for the state, admitted that the statements of counsel for the defense were true, that Holler fled to escape threatened arrest, that his wife had deserted him and that he was apprehended through his efforts to care for his motherless children and to prevent them from becoming objects of charity.

Mr. Smythe said that following Holler's arrest there have been numerous requests that mercy be extended to the prisoner. He said that he had been importuned to nolle the indictment against the accused but that he had refused.

The prosecutor told the court that he had in his possession letters and petitions of general circulation in which he was urged to consent to a suspension of the sentence passed upon Holler, and that the sentiment of the community was such that he could not feel justified in opposing the granting of the application made by the defendant's counsel.

Before passing sentence Judge Nicholas said that he had given the matter much thought and that he had sought to arrive at a conclusion in which justice was not biased by sympathy. The court said that it was not prepared to make an elaborate statement of the decision reached, but that a conclusion of justice and duty was more important than the expression of it.

In passing sentence the court spoke of the punishment already meted out to the defendant by the defection of his wife and of the heavy responsibility now upon him because of his children.

Judge Nicholas said that when the whole matter was stripped of any complications brought about by sympathy it was his duty as the court to pass a penalty commensurate with the offense committed, but that he is permitted to star the hand of execution if, in his judgment, the public welfare can best be subserved by so doing.

The court expressed the opinion

RAILROAD TO ANSWER FOR CATASTROPHE

Zanesville, Dec. 23.—Coroner A. E. Walters today held officials of the Pennsylvania railroad responsible for the wreck at Dresden, Dec. 3, when a train on the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus division collided with the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley division train and 11 persons were killed. He says the trains were running too closely together. The Cleveland, Akron and Columbus train was not able to see the danger signal soon enough.

SUSPENDED FINE FOR THE TEACHER

A Newark teacher charged with violation of the regulations of the Board of Health, was fined when she appeared before Mayor Swartz Monday afternoon. She was represented by counsel. The execution of the court's order was suspended. The teacher was charged with failing to inquire of her pupils whether there was any illness in their respective families. This is required of all teachers in the city and is done to prevent children from families where there is illness of a contagious nature from attending school.

PARKERSBURG CONVERSIONS REACHED 2,548

Dr. M. H. Lyon closed a successful six weeks' campaign at Parkersburg last night, amid scenes which resembled very closely the great excitement of the final day in Newark, which brought over 200 people into connection with the church. The Parkersburg conversions totalled 2548; those in Newark's six weeks' campaign, 2687. A free will offering was also taken for the evangelist in the West Virginia city and $4132 secured, considerably less than the $5600 offering contributed by Newark citizens.

SUNDAY'S REASON OF DR. ROWLAND AT BAPTIST CHURCH

At the Fifth Street Baptist church Sunday morning, Dr. Rowlands preached on the subject, "What the Advent of Jesus Christ Accomplished for Men." He said that he revealed the fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man; he gave to men a new and perfect standard of righteousness; he disclosed the value of suffering for the truth and for men, and he brought life and immortality into the world.

In discussing the first question the speaker said:

Men had lost all knowledge of the Heavenly Father, though they sought Him everywhere. They fancied His likenesses in the wood, in stone and iron; they sought to discover Him in the brute, beast and demon and worshipped these. They saw His face in the forbidding cloud; the deadly lightning bolt was the flash of His eyes; the following thunder his threatening voice. Nothing in Him to love! Better meet the fiercest enemy than meet the God who created them. They called Him the "Avenger," the "King Omnipotent," the "Cloud Dweller," names suggesting fear and terror. Then, men strive to imitate their God to become like the Being they worshipped. The endless ignorant savagery, and cruelties of men in all ages sprung, not only from a perverted nature, but also from a desire to imitate their god. He was cruel and they became so; He was false and they imitated Him. The light within them became darkness, and how great was the darkness!

Jesus revealed God as never a priest or prophet had done. He came from the bosom of the Father and introduced His nature and character to men. He declared that he himself was one with the Father; that men should approach Him as "Our Father." He declared that the Father loved men with a love quenchless and eternal, with an infinite passion of pity and sympathy; the sins of men did not stay the flow of that love; that He himself had been sent and serve the messenger and minister of that divine love. Jesus drew the most impressive pictures of that kinship: God was the "Good Samaritan" who pitied and helped a wounded and dying man; the benevolent creditor who forgave the bankrupt debtor; the careful Shepherd who went after the lost sheep; the heart-broken Father who welcomed home the lost and disgraced son. Men received a new conception of God in the Advent of Christ-man, so they lived Him and sought Him, and at last to dwell with such a Father. The influence of this Advent revelation has for two thousand years been changing the nature and character of the race. As the sun holds our planet in its embrace, chasing away its winter and brings spring and summer with flowers and fruit, so also does the true knowledge as He is revealed. Jesus Christ, chance and transform men into God-likeness. The golden millennium age comes when the knowledge of God shall fill the earth as the waters cover the deep.

The revelation of the relations of God to men was followed by the disclosure of their relation to and kinship with one another. If God is the Universal Father, then "we be all brethren." This revolutionized old ideas for men had regarded themselves enemies. Mutual hatred, injury, and destruction was the law of society and states. This so yet among savages and where the spirit of Jesus is precluded. When a vessel is wrecked on a pagan shore the first acts of natives are to kill the unfortunate and seize their possessions. Better meet beasts of prey than fellow-men. Prisoners of war were slain unless it were more profitable to enslave them. Reformation of criminals, kindness to the unfortunate, forgiveness to enemies were as strange ideas to them as would a telephone or steam engine be. The earth was full of violence and man was his brother-man's greatest foe.

"Jesus came with the wonderful argument that since men had one common Father—the great and loving God, therefore, they were brethren and should love one another, even as He himself loved them and died to redeem them.

"He gave to life a new value: He created a new type of home. He warned monsters that God loved little children and would avenge their abuse. He declared to men that woman is their sister—not their toy or slave. He gave a new law of life: 'Whatever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye also unto them.' 'Love thy neighbor as thyself.' This revelation of human brotherhood is enlarging and intensifying so that in its radiant light the vultures of war will perish of hunger; capital and labor will honor and serve one another; womanhood will be honored; childhood protected; poverty, with all its gaunt visage, its unfathomable maw, and sharp lean fingers will be no more; hatred, envy, and malice will be cast into the hell whence they came, and men shall know God and love one another from the least unto the greatest. That is the vision from the holy peaks of Christmas."

At last evening's service, the Christmas exercises took a novel form, thirteen young women of the church reciting a composition which has made Dr. Rowlands prominent in literary affairs. Entitled "The Christian's Christmas Tree," the composition includes the offering gifts, representative of the attributes of Christ's character which carry their blessings to the lives of mankind today.

The offering was splendidly received, particularly because in its development could be traced the genius of the man who has endeared himself to the hearts of the local church, and his unusual way of presenting his sermon was magnificent; another example of his ability to serve his Master in both song and prose. At the close of the service, Dr. Rowlands was surprised by the

WHERE THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT PREDOMINATES

WANTED TO BREAK INTO COUNTY JAIL

Ed Leonard's efforts to get a sentence to the county jail, where he might spend the winter, failed in police court this morning, when he drew a fine of $10 and costs on a charge of resisting an officer and was ordered committed to the city prison.

Leonard was arrested by Patrolman Heck and Gorman Saturday night, charged with drunk and disorderly. When Patrolman Heck entered the room where Leonard was staying, in South Second street Leonard hurled a chair at the officer. Not satisfied with one, he sent another flying at the bluecoat, and about this time the cop pulled his revolver and fired a couple of shots.

Leonard was finally subdued by the officers and loaded into the patrol wagon. Enroute to the city prison he told the officers he wanted to get into the county jail to spend the winter.

Three other drunks were disposed of Monday.

Patrolman Donley went gunning after a "mad" dog Monday morning and succeeded in ending the animal's career with one well directed shot from one of the shotguns in the headquarters arsenal. The dog was owned by Mr. Jones, in East Church street. Residents in the neighborhood had endeavored all morning to kill it, without success. No one was bitten during the hunt.

The Vital Spirit in the Christmas Gift

Some good people condemn Christmas giving, because so many make of it a senseless fad.

It is true that much—perhaps most—giving of Christmas gifts is far from in keeping with the real spirit of the sacred day or in accord with reason.

Gifts made for the sake of ostentatious display of means, or for the discharge of some obligation, or because something is expected in return, are worse than vulgar at a time when entirely different motives should hold sway and entirely different feelings find expression.

Giving has its source in the best part of our nature.

It is the sweetest expression of our best feeling.

It can no more be restrained
than can the waters of a spring;
and human life would be as desolate without the one as would be the earth without the other.

When we love, we give, and the giving is the sweetest part of loving.

Gladness and gratitude ever seek more tangible force of expression than mere words, and find it in gifts.

Christmas itself is but an observance of the greatest and di-vinest gift ever made to the world.

So there is plenty of justification for Christmas giving that is done in the right spirit.

But the spirit of the giving is more important than the gift itself.

Some mere trifle of a trinket
may serve to express remembrance and affection that give joy and cheer to a heart through a whole life-time while a costly bauble may express only temporary interest and give only momentary gratification.

IS YOUR MEMORY AS KEEN AS YOUR EYE?---NOVEL TEST IN TUESDAY'S ADVOCATE

In our issue Tuesday we will publish a remarkable composite illustration.

It includes 33 of the most famous people of this age.

It offers an excellent test of the general knowledge and memory of any man, woman or child. The object of this newspaper is to ascertain just how keen is the memory of its readers.

All of the portraits in the illustration have been published so often and so extensively, that you will probably have no difficulty in recognizing all or nearly all of them. However, you may find it somewhat more difficult to name them correctly than you will have in recognizing them the instant you see the illustration. Most people remember faces readily, but not names, because the impressions received by the eye are more enduring than those made on the mind or memory.

At first thought this may seem a curious statement to make, but upon reflection, you will no doubt admit that it is supported by our daily experiences. If the fact seems curious to you it is just because the experience to have memory fail us when eye or ear remind us, is so very common that it never occurred to us to think of it in just this way. For instance, how often have you heard a familiar musical refrain, or seen a familiar face and stopped and tried your best to name it but without success? How often have you said
"It's on the tip of my tongue," and how exasperated you felt because your memory proved so elusive that you simply could not name it.

The illustration to be published in our issue Tuesday constitutes an admirable means to test how well your memory serves you, and whether you remember not only the faces you often see in print but what is equally important—also names, or whether your memory is somewhat unreliable when put to the test. Like that of the Western Union telegraph, the memory of the person whom the late Bishop Potter visited to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. C. H. Gray of Elmwood avenue.

Raymond Perry, traveling for the Holohane company, is spending a few days at the Perry home on Williams street.

Oscar Stanton of Pittsburg will arrive this evening to spend a week at the home of his mother on South Fourth street.

Miss Morna Stevens of West Church street, who has been ill for several weeks, is reported to be improving rapidly in health.

DON'T CUT YOUR CORNS.
THIS WAY BETTER

It's a fool trick to gouge out corns, and dangerous, too. Don't wear loose boots—remove the corn by applying Putnam's Corn Extractor.

The result is magical. The remedy works wonders, eases the pain, lifts out the corn, brings comfort and sound feet at once. You buy a 25c. bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, recommended by druggists and W. A. Erman.

which practically suspended foreign commerce, became law. In spite

ANOTHER APPEAL

Dear Woodrow Wilson: Here I stand, a lightning rod in either hand, patient to be struck; I told you how I'd bleed and die, but you have sent me no reply—just like my doggone luck! I told you if I had a chance I'd be your minister to France, or ditto to St. James; turndown the patriots who shirked, but don't neglect the ones who worked until they broke their homes! You will may shudder when you think of how you'd be upon the blink had I not toiled and slaved for you throughout the long campaign: I wore out body, boots and a brain—and how have you behaved?
Long since you got my courteous note: no answer to the same you wrote, but left me here to pine, and all my enemies in town predict that you will turn me down, that I'll get out for mine. I don't insist on foreign post—though such a snap would suit me most—but any job will do; just any snap beneath the sun to show you've not forgotten one who did so much for you; I am the man who for you yelled when all the dubs, and organized the Wilson clubs at Mudville-on-the-Hill.

OBSTINATE CATARRH

cannot be corrected by local treatment; to arrest the flow of secretion you must remove the cause; this symptom is only one of nature's warnings of a run-down system.

Christmas Trees Reduced to 19c Each

We have just received one thousand real living Cedar Trees suitable for Christmas trees; each tree is two to three feet tall and has the roots packed firmly in earth covered with moss and burlap.

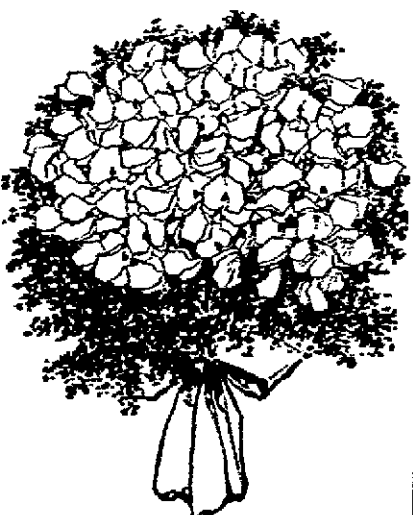

After using as Christmas trees, they may be planted either in box or in the yard and used again the next year.

A great advantage in using these live trees is that the cedar will not fall off as in the cut trees; thus you may keep your Christmas tree for weeks and they will be just as green as the first day.

SOCIETY

CASE—YOUNG.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young of Croton announce the marriage of their daughter, Carrie Smith Young, to Mr. Perry Miles Case on Sunday, December 22. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Henry W. Young of Barberton, O., Rev. W. W. Dieterick, pastor of the Methodist church of Kent, Ohio, officiating.

Both bride and groom have spent the last few years of their life in and near Croton, Mrs. Case being a graduate of the Croton High school this year. Mr. Case is the son of Mrs. Amanda Case, and is a successful young teacher of the Croton schools.

LEWIS—BEBOUT.

Only near relatives and a few friends of Miss Ethel I. Bebout of Alexandria, and William B. Lewis of Johnstown, witnessed their marriage Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Bebout, three miles north of Alexandria.

Promptly at seven, Mrs. Grace Horton played the wedding march, while the bridal couple took their place in an alcove of white banked with ferns and flowers.

During the ceremony, performed by Rev. L. S. Colburn of the Alexandria Baptist church, Miss Ruth Höller beautifully sang DeKoven's "O Promise Me."

Little Miss Helen Brady was flower-bearer. The bride, carrying a bouquet of white roses, was most charming in a gown of ivory satin with trimmings of pearl and chiffon. The groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony, place cards seated the following to a four-course wedding supper: Mr. and Mrs. William B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bebout, Mr. Earl Bebout of Pittsburg, Mrs. Emma Lewis, Rev. L. S. Colburn and wife, Misses Ima and Ella Philbrook of Granville, Mr. Fred Bidlack, and Mrs. Mary Bidlack of Johnstown, Mr. and Mrs. George Horton of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. Clendon Hisey, and Misses Lena Hand, Ruth Holler, Helen Brady and Lucile Hisey.

The bride was a graduate of the Granville high school in 1908 and is now a student of Denison Conservatory of Music.

The groom, a graduate of the Johnstown high school, is now employed in the Johnstown bank. They will make their future home in Johnstown.

Miss Lillian Miller of North Fourth street, has issued invitations for a thimble party, to be held New Year's Day, in honor of her guest, Miss Leila Cones of Columbus.

The members of the Amervia club spent a delightful afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Holler of North street, Wednesday. After a season of needle-work, refreshments were served, followed by the drawing from the Christmas box, which caused much merriment for all. Mr. Clinton McKinney and Mrs. W. S. Seymour were the only guests.

Willing Workers' Sewing Society will meet at the home of Miss Geneva Vermilion January 1. The February meeting will be with Mrs. Huffman.

Lewis P. Boring of 56 German street, who has the paper route for a number of large dailies, entertained his carrier boys at a delightful dinner Sunday at which the following menu was served:

Celery Stewed Oysters Pickles
Lettuce Fried Oysters

Onions Fried Chicken with Gravy
Mashed Potatoes Stewed Corn
Pumpkin and Raspberry Pie
Cafe Peaches Coffee

The boys all had a delightful time and after coffee a number of impromptu talks was made and Mr. Boring was voted a royal entertainer.

The following invitations have been received in Newark and Granville: Mr. and Mrs. William L. Dolman request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Josephine Lucile to Mr. Robert E. Pond

on the evening of Thursday the ninth of January one thousand nine hundred and thirteen half after eight o'clock
6604 Woodlawn avenue
Chicago.

Mr. Robert Pond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Pond of Granville, a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and a graduate of Denison University, class of 1906. Mr. Pond is now employed with a Chicago publishing house.

KITCHEN CABINET AWARDED W. MAIN ST. HOUSEKEEPER

With several hundred persons witnessing the drawing of the McDougall kitchen cabinet at the Besancony store in East Park Place Saturday evening, Mrs. George Hogriff of 504 West Main street, was declared the winner of the useful and handsome piece of kitchen furniture. The drawing was directed by Carl Dewar, a Newark man now identified with the McDougall company at Frankfurt, Ind., and representatives of the American Tribune and Daily Advocate. The fifth slip drawn from a closed box was declared the winner.

PEOPLE IN NEWARK LIKE THIS MIXTURE

Newark people, who have tried simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, say it is the best bowel and stomach remedy they ever used. R. F. Collins states that JUST A SINGLE DOSE usually relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach QUICKLY. Those who have used only the more ordinary bowel and stomach remedies are surprised at the QUICK action of Adler-ika.

POSTAL ZONE MAPS ARRIVED THIS MORNING

The zone map to be used by the local postal officials in the calculations of parcel post rates from Newark to all parts of the United States arrived here this morning, and it is expected that the stamps will be in the hands of Postmaster Geo. Heisey by tomorrow morning. This will leave only a week for the office clerks to accustom themselves to the new system and familiarize themselves with the zone system, and considerable difficulty is expected in the inauguration of the new system. All packages to be sent via the parcels post will have to be shipped from the postoffice and must bear the name of the sender as well as of the person for whom it is intended. Anyone desiring information as to the rates can secure the same from the local postoffice staff.

DON'T BE AN OLD MAN HUSBAND

BECAUSE OF GREY HAIR

Look sixty when your wife looks only twenty. Don't be the object of comment among your friends and neighbors. Don't be that grey-haired, passed looking fellow who's too old looking for his duty to your wife. There's no excuse for it, duty to your wife and particularly your own desire to be YOUNG look young, to do the active energetic things and keep up with the YOUNGER GENERATION should convince you that you ought to GET RID of those "GREY HAIRS"—ought to keep them out.

Nature never intended they should be in a young head. Help her along—USE—

The Shepherd of the Hills.
There is a character in "The Shepherd of the Hills" the dramatization of Harold Bell's novel, which comes to the Auditorium Christmas, matinee and night, called "Preachin' Bill." Despite the roughness of his character, he has a brand of philosophy that in its way is quite equal to that of "David Harum." Some of his sayings are:

"Some fellers can do mighty big things in a durned little way."
"Every hound has his strong points, but some has more of 'em."
"There is a bond of fellowship in sorrow that knows no conventionalities."

"God 'mighty fixed it somehow so th' birds and varmints don't make no mistake, but left it plumb for men and women t' make durned fools of themselves."

"It's good for a feller t' be down in the back once in a while, if he warn't for that we'd git to standin' so durned proud and straight we'd go plumb over blackwards."

"In his face was the look of one who had done fought his fight to the finish and war too dead beat t' even be glad it war over."
Seats are now on sale.

Percy Buffington Arrested.
Percy G. Buffington, whose fine impersonation of Bill, the burglar in "Sunbonnet Sue," had an unique experience this summer in New York. In order to become familiar with burglars, porch climbers, pickpockets and other underworld characters and make a study of their slang and ways of living, he spent some time in their haunts and after being with them some time was accepted as one of them and was asked to join the worst and most daring gang of holdup men that has infested New York for many years. Just previous to starting rehearsals for "Sunbonnet Sue," the police made a raid on the headquarters of the gang and Mr. Buffington was taken in the dragnet with 24 others, but was later released through the efforts of the Park Play Company, who convinced the judge that he was an actor and not a crook.

"Sunbonnet Sue" comes to the Auditorium Saturday, Dec. 28, matinee and evening.

China Sets Awarded.
A china dinner set of 42 pieces was awarded Mrs. Frank Westbrook of 64 Bowers Ave., at the Auditorium theatre Saturday Evening. Stanley Switzer was awarded a set Friday evening. Another 42 piece set will be given away this evening.

The Orpheum.
By visiting the Orpheum theatre tonight you will have the pleasure of seeing the Colonial Minstrels, an organization composed of men and women and said to be one of the best organizations of the kind playing vaudeville. The company offers a minstrel first part with the entire company, followed by Dinkins and Burke, the two principal comedians, in a singing, talking and dancing act, after which the Yeo Musical Girls, an act consisting of five young ladies, offer singing and instrumental numbers, and judging from reports which the theatre management has received, this act is out of the ordinary, and promises to meet the approval of those who enjoy good music. Dinkins & Burke, the two comedians, have for a number of years been with the leading minstrel companies. Miss Tessie Hays, the interloper, is said to have a singing voice seldom heard in the popular priced theatres taking in consideration the reports from the cities where this company has appeared. The management has chosen a real treat for the price of admission.

The ladies' souvenir matinees will begin tomorrow at 2:15 and each lady will receive a handsome present. Fancy cake plates and a number of fancy plates with 1913 calendar, will be given away. These calendar plates are very fancy and of first class china, with a beautiful decoration. All ladies must be present, as you can't afford to miss the calendar plates. You need not hold a lucky number—every lady gets one free.

CHRIST'S GOSPEL MISREPRESENTED

Foolishness of Preaching to the Worldly-Wise.

HIGHER CRITICISMS BLIGHT.

Why Should God's Ministers Preach and Entreat While Earthly Rulers Command?—In the Coming Age of Messiah's Kingdom It Will Be Different. The Law Shall Go Forth and the Transgressor Shall Receive Corrective Punishment, Says Pastor Russell.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 22.—Pastor Russell spoke here today. The text for the occasion was: "It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."—1 Corinthians, i. 21. There is a wide difference between the foolish preaching and "the foolishness of preaching" which our text declares is of Divine arrangement. The many topics of interest and profit to humanity all have their time and place. But the preaching of the Gospel has an exclusive right of way in the Church of Christ. If some claim that the people will no longer attend Divine service to hear Gospel preaching, we reply that there are three reasons for this.

(1) The Church lost the real Gospel during the Dark Ages, and few Christian people have yet recovered it. The word Gospel, as all agree, signifies good tidings, a message of joy; but the message handed down to humanity from the Dark Ages has been the reverse of this—bad tidings of great misery for nearly all of our race. Is it any wonder that the great majority are disgusted with the horrible misrepresentations of the creeds? Man-kind have trials and difficulties enough in the present life, and need encouragement to hope for better things in the life to come.

(2) Responding to the growing sentiment of intelligence, the ministers of the various denominations of Christendom have ceased to preach bad tidings of great misery for all but "the very elect." Nearly all ministers, graduated within the last twenty years, lost all their faith in the Bible as the inspired Word of God, in the theological seminaries, where they were taught unbelief, under the name of Higher Criticism; where they also were taught to consider it honorable to sullying their manhood by accepting ordination and salary for serving a denomination whose published creed they disown and despise. In the same seminaries they acquired the thought that it is right and honorable to receive title, honor and salary from a church, ostensibly as a Christian minister and Bible exponent, and then to use the opportunity to undermine the faith of the church and to destroy confidence in the Bible as the inspired Word of God.

Under these conditions, what shall these ministers preach instead of the Gospel of Christ, which they no longer believe? Is it any wonder that they preach those things that they ought not to preach, and leave unpreached those things that they ought to preach? Not many of their hearers care for scientific disquisitions; not many of them care to hear commonplace essays on good morals. So how can such ministers avoid foolish preaching?

(3) Not content with undermining the faith of the people who trust and honor and obey them, these ministers mix their higher critical views and evolutionary views with diluted morality, and serve this as instead of the Gospel of Christ. He who thinks that such a message will convert a mind from sin to righteousness, from unbelief to faith in God, deceives himself. He who thinks that such messages will have a sanctifying power in the hearts of God's people, equally deceives himself.

No Gospel Without Redemption.
The essence of the Gospel of Christ is that He died for sinners, the Just for the unjust, that He might bring mankind back to God. But the false gospels deny that man ever fell from the likeness of God, and equally deny therefore that he needed a Redeemer and that he has a Redeemer. Such spurious gospels, which leave out the very core and essence of the Divine Message, are false, by whatever honorable channel they may have come. We may be sure that they are of the Adversary himself; for they make void the Word of God, the death of Jesus, and His resurrection, and His coming again to give to mankind the glorious blessings and privileges bought with His precious blood.

The True Gospel, the "good tidings of great joy, which shall be unto all people," contains not a single word respecting an eternity of torture at the hands of fire-proof demons. It contains not a single word which would discredit the Wisdom, Justice and Love of the Father above, whose tender mercies are over all His works and whose salvation is yet to be extended to the ends of the earth.

The True Gospel, acknowledging that humanity has come justly under a penalty or curse of death, sets before the groaning creation a glorious hope. It proclaims, as Jesus did, that the time is coming when the curse shall be removed, and when God through the Messianic Kingdom "will wipe away all tears from off all faces." (Isaiah xiv. 8.) It proclaims, as Jesus did, a glorious prospect for all who desire to come into harmony with God; and a just penalty, or stripes, upon all those who sin wilfully against light and knowledge and opportunity. It proclaims that a New Day is dawning, in which the Lord will give "beauty for ashes, and the oil of joy for the spirit of heaviness."

The True Gospel includes the "Gospel of the Kingdom"—that the Divine arrangement now is for the selection of the Kingdom class from amongst men, to be heirs of God and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ in His Messianic Kingdom. It proclaims the honorable work of the Church as the Kingdom of God by and by, to judge, rule and bless all the families of the earth. It proclaims also that the number who will attain to this Kingdom glory is limited—a little flock, to whom it will be the Father's good pleasure to give the Kingdom. (Luke xii. 32.) It exhorts the making of "our calling and election sure" to a share in that Kingdom.

Is Gospel Preaching Logical?
Let us notice the world's viewpoint, which causes the Gospel Message to appear foolish to them. To the worldly-wise it looked very foolish, indeed for Jesus to go about Palestine with twelve disciples, performing some miracles and inviting chiefly the poor to become His followers, leaving business and other pursuits. "Ah," says the world, "how impractical was Jesus and how foolish was His message! A business man would have laid a good foundation for his work by making friends with the Scribes, the Pharisees and the Doctors of the Law, and utilizing their influence with their hold upon the people."

But, we ask, how then would the Scriptures have been fulfilled? Who would have crucified Christ, or have caused His death? There would have been no reconciliation possible for mankind. It is well for us that Jesus did not follow the suggestions of worldly wisdom. Truly "the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God," even as the Wisdom of God is foolishness with the children of this world.

It is because worldly wisdom got its hold in the Dark Ages that the Gospel has been perverted so greatly. Great human institutions have arisen, mighty and powerful, through man's cunning. Priestcraft and statecraft have made the professed Church of Christ one of the greatest business institutions on earth. Not more, but less, of human wisdom is what we need; and not less, but more, of Divine Wisdom and instruction from the Bible.

Why It Seems Foolish.
From the world's standpoint it seems foolish that God should invite any to do right and to be His servants. It seems weak for a God of all power to entreat, where He could command and enforce obedience. Earth's kings, having the power, would enforce their commands; in fact, everybody, as a rule, executes his own will. How strange, therefore, it appears to the world, that it should be otherwise with the Almighty!

The Bible, however, gives the information. God wishes to select a special class of special servants. To test their loyalty, there must be opportunity for them to resist Him and to refuse obedience. God causes His Message or invitation to pass on to others also, that thus He may find the peculiar people who prefer to do good rather than evil; to such an extent that they are willing to suffer for righteousness' sake. The special work which He designs the Church to accomplish requires such loyal, faithful souls as these—men and women glad to sacrifice their lives in the service of the Lord. His cause and His brethren. The class He seeks "count not their lives dear unto themselves."

God carries the proposition still further, however, and puts this special class to peculiar and severe tests, that the trial of their faith and obedience, being more precious than that of gold, may be found acceptable unto His pleasure—eventually.

Persecutions, tribulations, attacks from the world, the flesh and the Adversary, are permitted to come against these to test their loyalty. None of these things are what the world would expect; and to tell the world of these is to relate what seems to them foolishness. They cannot see why consecrated people of God should suffer reproofs for righteousness' sake, for Truth's sake.

But all these matters are clear and plain to those who are taught of God—to those who have learned that the Church is being selected from amongst mankind for a very special work of God. This makes it appropriate that their loyalty be tested to the limit, in order that they may be counted worthy of the "glory, honor and immortality," which God has for those who love Him.

By and By It Will Be Different.

The Divine Plan outlined in the Bible is different. The procedure under Messiah's Kingdom and dealing with the world will be exactly what the world will concede to be a wise program. In that time all darkness, ignorance and superstition will speedily pass away under the advancing light of the Sun of Righteousness. The way of righteousness will no longer be narrow, secluded and rugged, as at present. God describes it through the Prophet, saying, "A highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the Way of Holiness; * * * the redeemed of the Lord shall walk there; no ravenous beast shall go up there on."—Isaiah xxxv. 8, 9.

Faithfulness will bring the Divine reward of freedom from weakness, and of increase of strength—mental, moral and physical. Day by day the well-doer, walking on the Highway of Holiness, will be coming nearer to human perfection. Thus will be fulfilled, through Christ, the gracious promise that "God shall wipe away all tears from all faces," and "there shall be no more curse, neither sorrow, nor sighing, nor crying; for the former things shall have passed away."

Many Stripes and Few Stripes.

The Bible clearly indicates that the Adamic condemnation against our race will be fully offset by the merit of Christ's sacrifice. But on the other hand, it tells us that every transgression which is not purely of inherited weakness is charged to the account of the transgressor and must be met by him. Jesus emphasizes this lesson, saying, "He that knew his Master's will and did it not, shall be beaten with many stripes; but he that knew it not and yet did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes." Some of these stripes, or punishments, may indeed come to the transgressor in the present life; and if so, he does well to profit by them.

But whether in the present life or in the future life, every wilful transgression will receive "a just recompense of reward." The difficulty with our theories of the Dark Ages on this subject has not been that they taught a punishment for sin; but that they taught an unjust penalty, dishonoring to the Creator and stultifying to the believer.

The Records of Wilful Sin.

It is a mistake to say that increasing sins would increase the ranges of conscience and that thus each would be punished. We know to the contrary that many, as they become steeped in sin, lose all sensibility. St. Paul corroborates this thought, saying of some that their consciences become "seared"—calloused.

God provided that each individual shall keep a record in himself of his own moral obliquities. Each violation of conscience weakens the character. Character weakened, degraded, can be reconstructed only with proportionately great difficulty. Thus some, during the period of Messiah's Kingdom, will be struggling against weaknesses which they brought upon themselves aside from those of Adamic heredity. The assistance from the Royal Priesthood will be proportionate to the Adamic weakness, contrary to the human will. Outside temptations will be gone. Full knowledge will be there; but character will be the thing of paramount importance as determining who will attain everlasting life.

Our Redeemer gave a suggestion along this line when He said to the Pharisees, "How can ye escape the condemnation of Gehenna?" (Matthew xxiii. 33.) The Valley of Hinnom (Gehenna) outside Jerusalem, where the idol was finally destroyed, symbolically represented the Second Death, as explained in Revelation xx. 14. Jesus did not condemn the Pharisees to the Second Death. His mission to the world was not to condemn men; for they were condemned already—under the Adamic condemnation. The Son of Man came "not to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved." (John iii. 17.) At the time He spoke these words respecting the Pharisees, He was laying down His life on behalf of all the children of Adam. They could not forfeit their share in His resurrection work until that work had been completed and they had enjoyed their share of the Redeemer's favor.

The import of the Redeemer's words, therefore, was that He perceived in them so much of dishonesty and hardness of heart that He prophesied that they would have a hard time to reform character, even under the favorable conditions of the Millennium. They had seen the Master, heard His teachings, witnessed His miracles, and must have been reasonably convinced that it was a holy power which operated in Him. When, therefore, in bitterness of spirit they declared that His miracles and teachings were inspirations of Satan, they were well-nigh without excuse.

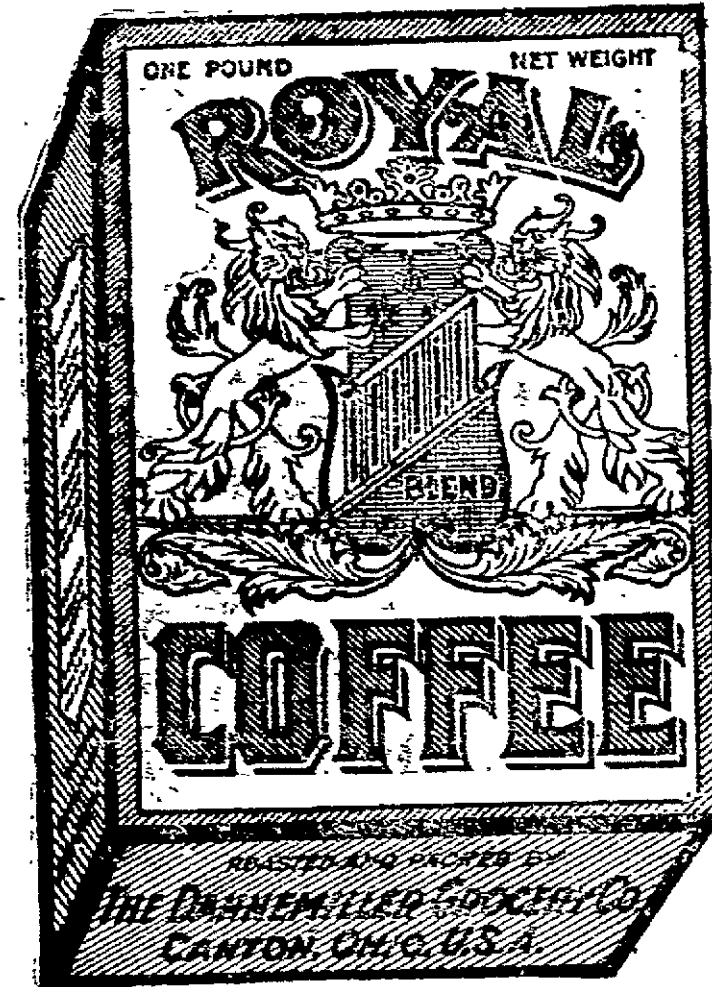

It could hardly be supposed that such perversity of spirit was the result either of ignorance or of Adamic weakness. Evidently there was great willfulness associated with it. Hence the Master declared that persons who could thus attribute to Satan things which they recognized as good, pure and holy, must have greatly perverted their consciences. They will be obliged to suffer stripes accordingly, and will have proportionately great difficulty in bringing themselves into harmony with the requirements of the Messianic Kingdom.

"Preach the Word."

All of God's people are preachers. The begetting influence of the Holy Spirit is the only ordination necessary, and without it no one has Divine authority to preach. Preaching, in its broad sense, means to declare, to make known. God's Book makes no division of His people into clergy and laity. "He that hath My Word, let him speak My Word faithfully," saith the Lord. Let us declare God's Message in its purity and simplicity, whoever hears and whoever refuses to hear. Let us not be disappointed that the worldly-wise will think it foolish, as in St. Paul's day; and let us not be surprised if the preaching of this Message shall bring odium, as it did upon the Master and the Apostles. "The world knoweth us not, even as it knew Him not."

God's Message, for all that, will accomplish its purpose. He will find the "peculiar people" whom He seeks; not one member of the foreordained number will be lacking. They will all be blessed and holy. As Messiah's associates in the Kingdom, they will then "declare the decree." (Psalm ii. 7.) The Law will go forth, and chastisements will follow to enforce the Law, until all shall be brought to a knowledge of the Truth, the incorrigible destroyed, and every knee shall bow and every tongue confess, to the glory of God.

BIG BOXING EXHIBITION AT CAPITAL CITY

Scores of Newark fans will journey to Columbus this evening to witness the big boxing carnival that will be featured by Johnny Griffith, the Akron bearcat, and Willie Jones, the Brooklyn whirlwind. These cliver boys will undoubtedly put up one of the classiest exhibitions ever staged in the capital city and it should be worth going miles to see.

George Watson, the Columbus favorite will try conclusions with Knockout O'Neil of Akron. People who have seen Watson box state that the knockout one will have the mill of his life. This will be a regular main go of eight fast and furious rounds. Young Dempsey of Columbus and Jimmy Parn of Boston will box six rounds. Dempsey has never been defeated and Parn has over 100 bouts to his credit. A famous battle royal will be staged, in which seven dusky sons of Ham will participate. Don't miss this big bill. Get in line with the local fans and spend an enjoyable evening with the Panhandle Athletic Club.

NEWARK INVITED TO TAKE PART IN THIS MEETING

The Ohio Municipal League will hold its first annual meeting in Columbus January 22-23 and the mayors of 82 cities and 259 incorporated villages have been invited to send delegates to the meeting. The league was organized last January at a conference of delegates from 52 cities.

A program is being prepared by the Executive Board for three sessions, Wednesday afternoon, Wednesday evening and Thursday morning. It is expected that the Smith one per cent tax law will be one of the subjects for discussion.

The chief feature of the program will be the consideration of proposed legislation affecting cities and villages under the home rule amendment.

A committee composed of A. R. Hatton, Newton D. Baker, D. E. Morgan, W. A. Greenlund, Walter L. Flory, H. M. Roberts and Stephen S. Stillwell, is framing legislation for three types of city government; the commission form, the city manager form and the federal plan. Under the constitution any municipality in the state by a vote of its citizens can adopt any one of the forms approved by the legislature. The committee expects to have these proposed drafts completed and mailed to the delegates in advance of the annual meeting. After full discussion by the delegates the amended bills will be placed in the hands of some members of the legislature for introduction.

The mayors of the larger cities of the state have expressed their intention of being present and will take an active part in the discussion.

CITY EMPLOYEES DRAW SALARIES

The payrolls for the police and fire departments were sent to the city auditor Monday morning and the employees in these departments got their money in time to spend most of it in Christmas shopping. The employees of the public service department will get their money on Tuesday. The clerks in this department were unable to get the payrolls prepared in time to pay off Monday.

PRACTICAL JOKE ON GROCERYMAN

A practical joke played by friends of Mr. Baird, groceryman, at East Main and Wing streets, sent police officers out on a still hunt for chicken thieves Sunday and Sunday night. After the store was closed up for the night, friends of Mr. Baird removed the chicken coop and contents from in front of the store. The coop contained 15 or 20 chickens and ducks. Officers hunted all of Sunday afternoon and part of Sunday night before it was learned that the birds were safe.

STATE SEALER INSTRUCTS THE LOCAL DEPUTY

Of interest and importance to every storekeeper, dealer and huckster and every buyer is the letter recently received by R. E. McGonagle, deputy sealer of weights and measures for Licking county, from the office of S.
E. Strode, the state sealer.

The letter gives the official inside dimensions of dry measures and authorizes the condemnation of all measures not conforming to the dimensions adopted.

Mr. R. E. McGonagle,
Newark, Ohio.

Dear Sir: Section 6114, General
Code, provides that the unit of standard measure of capacity for substances other than liquids, from which all other measures of such substances shall be derived and ascertained, shall be the standard bushel measure furnished this state by the government of the United States, the interior diameter of which is thirteen inches and thirty-nine sixteenths of an inch, and the depth of which is seven inches
and one twenty-fourth of an inch.

Section 6115. The peck, half peck, quarter peck, quart and pint measure for measuring commodities other than liquids shall be derived from the half bushel measure by dividing it and each successive measure by two.

Section 6116. Articles sold by heaped measure shall be heaped in a conical form as high as such articles permit.

The object of Section 6114, General
Code, is to require that the peck, half peck, quarter peck, quart and pint measures used by dealers should have respectively one-half the quantity of the half bushel and each preceding measure enumerated in Section 6115.

In a recent opinion the Attorney General, with the above section in view, holds that the state sealer may adopt as a standard but one uniform form of measure, enumerated in Section 6115, General Code, which standard must maintain such proper proportions
as to height and diameter as will enable the proportions specified in Section 6115, General Code, to apply to the quantity sold as well as to the cubic capacity of the measure. And in accordance with the above Sections the state sealer has adopted the inside dimensions for said measures as follows:

Half Bushel—Diameter 13 39-40 inches, depth 7 1-24 inches, tolerance diameter 3-16, depth 3-16, cubic inches 27.

Peck—Diameter 11 inches, depth 5 7-8 inches, tolerance diameter 1-8, depth 1-8, cubic inches 12.

Half peck—Diameter 8 1-2 inches, depth 4 1-4 inches, tolerance diameter
1-8, depth 1-8, cubic inches 6.

Quarter peck—Diameter 6 5-8 inches, depth 3 1-8 inches, tolerance diameter 1-8, depth 1-8, cubic inches 3.

Quart—Diameter 5 5-16, depth 3 inches, tolerance diameter 1-16, depth 1-16, cubic inches 2.

The sealer of weights and measures in the state of Ohio are hereby authorized and instructed to seal only such measures as comply with the above specifications and that all other dry measures not in accordance with the above requirements shall be condemned.

The communication is signed by S.
E. Strode, state sealer of weights and measures, and the sealers throughout the state are instructed to enforce the provisions strictly.

These new provisions will have a decided effect on commodities sold by dry measure, either by the "stroke" of the "heaping" measure and will probably cause a radical change in some of the measures now in use.

INSTRUCTIONS
REGARDING ALL
DRY MEASURES

John Zimmerman, city sealer of weights and measures, has received instructions from S. E. Strode, who has charge of the state department of weights and measures, ordering him to condemn and condemn all dry measures which do not conform in form with the standard measures as furnished the state department by the Washington department of standard weight and measures. This order means that all dry measures known as "tall measures" will be condemned and confiscated by the sealer. It is the policy of the department that while these measures may have the same cubic capacity, they do not hold the required weights in vegetables and fruits. The standard measures are flat and it is possible to comply with the law which requires all dry measures to be heaped with fruits or vegetables offered for sale.

AGOGA CLASS ELECTS FOR COMING YEAR

The young men's Bible class of the Fifth Street Baptist church held its organization meeting Sunday morning, and elected officers for the ensuing year. The class has affiliated with the "Agoga" movement which is rapidly spreading through Baptist churches, having been evolved by Dr. H. E. Tralle, whose work at Summerland Beach last summer was one of the aggressive features of the Ohio Baptist convention. The class will, like all other Agoga classes, take as its motto "Get Another Man," and it is expected that the work will develop rapidly. With James Morrison as teacher, the following officers were elected:

Walter J. Pine, resident.
Julian Bail, vice president.
L. J. Mears, secretary.
Durham Pivler, treasurer.
Donald Vall, visitor.
Neil Mayer, entertained.

The class now has a membership of sixteen, and its rolls are open to any young man in the city between the ages of sixteen and twenty-four years of age.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF THE LICKING BAR ASSOCIATION

Mr. Stasel appointed Charles W. Miller, J. Howard Jones and Edward Kibler Jr. as a committee on arrangements.

ABE MARTIN HAS RETURNED TO DUTY ON THE ADVOCATE

No, gentle reader, Mr. Abe Martin is not dead. He has been away on a little vacation, that's all. Mr. Martin has returned home and is again on duty.

When the Advocate discontinued temporarily the publication of the Abe Martin paragraphs a short time ago a perfect flood of protests came to this office. They came by mail, by phone and in person.

Mr. Martin had been on duty daily for a long time--and we thought he was entitled to a rest. He's here again and will appear from day to day with a smile for the Advocate readers. Abe says says he to all Advocate readers "Merry Christmas."

THE BIRTHDAY CALENDAR.
*****

December 23

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY.

You are warned against indiscretions of diet and should take general care of your health, for troubles threaten you and strength of body and mind will be necessary. Avoid quarrels and law suits.

Those born today will be naturally inconsiderate of others and they will lose many friendships by lacking appreciation of favors granted them. They will have capable minds and high ambition, so that with their faults well understood by their guardians, their training will not be difficult, but pampering or indulging them will start them on the path to failure.
